Young America's Foundation is publishing a Campus Intelligence Brief, an interesting "dope sheet" on Communist and radical activities on college campuses.

A recent CIB issue contains a feature entitled "Columbia University: Marxist-Leninist Breeding Ground." It reports that 1960s radical Amiri Baraka, formerly known as LeRoi Jones, has joined the faculty as a professor of "English and Contemporary Literature." Baraka, the publication says, "is the author of several explicit pornographic, anti-white racist plays" and in 1967 was jailed for his role in helping orchestrate the Newark riots.

Another feature in CIB entitled "Rutgers University Professor/Soviet Agent," deals with Lennox Hinds, an associate professor of criminal law at the New Jersey school. Hinds, who is said to be an activist with the International Association of Democratic Lawyers—which has been classified by the CIA as a Soviet front—is presently teaching a course on, of all things, "international terrorism."
